8 MICKEL ROACH,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 MIDVALE INDEMNITY COMPANY, et al.,

12 Defendants.

Case No.: 2:21-cv-01793-GMN-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 9]

13 Pending before the Court is the parties' proposed discovery plan, in which the parties seek 14 a discovery period greater than the presumptively reasonable 180 days. Docket No. 9. Requests
15 for special scheduling review must include "a statement on the reasons why longer or different 16 time periods should apply to the case..." Local Rule 26-1(a). The parties attempt to justify their 17 request for a 339-day discovery period by stating that the underlying claims might require
18 subpoenaing documents from a number of state agencies and potentially conducting depositions.
19 Docket No. 9 at 2-3.

20 The parties fail to provide meaningful discussion as to why this case requires a discovery
21 period significantly longer than the presumptively reasonable discovery period. Without further
22 elaboration, the Court is not persuaded that the requested discovery period is reasonable in this 23 case. Accordingly, the discovery plan is DENIED without prejudice. The parties must file an 24 amended discovery plan no later than November 15, 2021.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.

26 Dated: November 8, 2021
